

Be kind to one another,
tenderhearted, forgiving one another,
as God in Christ forgave you.

St. Paul Lutheran Church

Lutheran Church- Missouri Synod
Columbus, Indiana

Welcome to St. Paul!

We are glad that you have come to God's house to be fed and strengthened by His holy Word. The order of service for today is printed on the insert in this bulletin. Guests, we extend a special welcome to you this morning. We are privileged to have you as our guest today and encourage you to worship with us again soon.

The Family Quiet Room and Restroom are located outside the doors of the sanctuary and to the left. In the Family Quiet Room, you can hear and see the service. Assisted hearing devices are available for the service. Please contact an usher.

Do you need prayer support? Please call Bonnie England at 812-447-7895 to activate our Prayer Chain. Your fellow church members will pray for you.

Our Communion Practice: We invite and encourage those who have been instructed, confirmed, and confess the faith of this congregation and other congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to receive the Sacrament. Communicants at this altar acknowledge their sins, believe that the body and blood of Christ are truly present in the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins, and desire the Spirit's help to turn from their sins.

Those who are not communing are invited to come forward and receive a blessing by placing their arms across their chest.

If you have questions regarding our Communion teaching and practice, please speak to a pastor.

Communion Preparation: To prepare for the Lord's Supper, you may wish to pray the prayer on the inside cover of the hymnal or review the Christian Questions and Answers on pages 329-330.

Salutation and Collect of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

G (sung) And also with you.

P Let us pray. O God, our refuge and strength, the author of all godliness, hear the devout prayers of Your Church, especially in times of persecution, and grant that what we ask in faith we may obtain; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G (spoken) Amen.

So Very Good—J. Behnke

So very good: the world You made With all the galaxies displayed
And tiny creatures yet unknown Will testify to You alone. So very good, so very good, so very good indeed!
So very good: the grace You gave That we as sinners hope to live—A hope as certain as Your Word,
Which by Your mercy, we have heard. So very good, so very good, so very good indeed!
So very good: Your Law and will That we should go to nations still, Proclaiming Jesus far and near
That all may hear Your Gospel clear. So very good, so very good, so very good indeed!
So very good: the Final Day When all despair is wiped away And every evil disappears
To free us from all pain and tears. So very good, so very good, so very good indeed!

Old Testament Reading

Genesis 50:15-21

When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us and pay us back for all the evil that we did to him." So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died: 'Say to Joseph, "Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you."' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. His brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants." But Joseph said to them, "Do not fear, for am I in the place of God? As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today. So do not fear; I will provide for you and your little ones." Thus he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading

Romans 14:1-12

[Paul writes:] As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions. One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God."

P This is the Word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 18:21-35

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 18th chapter.

G (sung) Glory to You, O Lord.

Then Peter came up and said to [Jesus], "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times.

"Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also My heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

G (sung) Praise to You, O Christ.

Jesus Has Come and Brings Pleasure Eternal (Hymn 533)—G.M. Göttische

Forgiven Forgivers Matthew 18:21-35

You are in debt to G_____ for your sins are against Him and against other people.

The message is this: When you forgive others, there should be no limit—just as God forgives y_____ without limit.

The master in the parable knew that the only good path forward was through f_____.

We tend to m_____ our own sins. We like to think, "I'm not that b_____."

"The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). Physical death, spiritual death, and eternal death in hell—eternal separation from G_____. Our debt is immense!

So who pays the debt? G_____ does through the life, death, and resurrection of His Son, Jesus, the Christ!

To receive forgiveness from God is to become a forgiver of others. We are "Forgiven F_____."

Next Sunday's Readings Isaiah 55:6–9; Philipians 1:12–14, 19–30; Matthew 20:1–16

LIVING THE SERMON... "And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

What does this mean? We pray in this petition that our Father in heaven would not look at our sins, or deny our prayer because of them. We are neither worthy of the things for which we pray, nor have we deserved them, but we ask that He would give them all to us by grace, for we daily sin much and surely deserve nothing but punishment. So we too will sincerely forgive and gladly do good to those who sin against us. (Luther's Small Catechism)

PRAYERS FOR THE CHURCH... Father, please give us the strength and courage of faith to love and forgive those who sin against us as You have forgiven us our innumerable sins against You and others.

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK... For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts. Isaiah 55:8-9

Extending Christ's Love

Jesus established His church to be His Forgiveness Place. It's here where we are forgiven and set free from our sins through the waters of baptism, the word of absolution, and the body and blood of Christ. In our early childhood ministry, children not only receive the forgiveness of Christ but learn how to be forgiven forgivers, to say, "I'm sorry" when they have sinned against a classmate and to say, "I forgive you," when someone confesses their sins to them. Your generous support of Extending Christ's Love will allow us to extend the love and forgiveness of Christ to many more people for generations to come.

School Safety Grant Received: We are excited to announce that we have been awarded an $86,000 School Safety Grant from the Department of Homeland Security. These funds will be applied to the fire suppression system, secure doors and windows, and security/alarm systems and cameras. All these expenses were already in the budget for the Christian Education Center, so this grant is a tremendous blessing. Special thanks to Rachel Fohne and the Finance Committee for their ongoing efforts to apply for available grants.

The Catalog of Needed Items gives you the opportunity to support Extending Christ's Love above your pledge. Items can be reserved in honor of or in memory of a loved one or in thanksgiving for a special event. You can find the Catalog online (stpaulcolumbus.org) or print copies are in the gathering space. If you have any questions about the Catalog or need assistance reserving items, please contact Phil Burbrink or Rachel Fohne.

Stewarding HIS Gifts

Supporting the Lord's Work

There are multiple ways to give to St. Paul. You can always donate online through the website or use the QR code on the back page of this bulletin. You can make a one-time donation or schedule weekly or monthly donations that you can adjust or cancel at any time. Scheduling online donations can help donors stay up to date on general fund and ECL pledges. If you have a question about donating to St. Paul or any of the information below, please reach out to Rachel Fohne at 812-343-3786 or rachel.fohne@stpaulcolumbus.org.

Extending Christ's Love Pledges

Now is an excellent time to revisit your Extending Christ's Love pledge! The fulfillment of member pledges is an essential part of our Extending Christ's Love financial plan. If you have forgotten details about your pledge, need an update on how much you have donated, or need to adjust your pledge, please reach out to Rachel Fohne. These details help us with our financial planning. Thank you for your continued generosity and support!

Multiple Ways to Give with Potential Tax Advantages

Did you know there are strategic, tax advantaged ways to give to St. Paul? You can donate appreciated securities directly to St. Paul to fulfill your General Fund or Extending Christ's Love pledges. Donating appreciated securities such as stocks, bonds, and mutual funds may offer a tax advantage to the donor. Generally, the tax-deductible value of a gift of securities is the current market value as of the date of the gift. Appreciation (capital gains) of this donated security is generally not taxable to the donor.

Some employers even offer employee stock purchase plans. If you are enrolled in such a plan, you have the option to donate these appreciated securities directly to St. Paul. Reach out to your employer to see what options are available to you. Also, farmers who donate commodities such as grain directly to the church might be able to receive valuable tax benefits. As always, please consult with your tax advisor about your specific situation.

Donate to our Lutheran Scholarship Granting Organization at St. Paul!

Support our SGO fundraising campaign! SGO donations made between June 1, 2026, and May 31, 2027, will support our 2027-2028 school year. A donation to our St. Paul Lutheran SGO directly benefits our Early Childhood Ministry funding our mission and ministry! Donors receive a 50% state income tax CREDIT! You can donate stocks, bonds, mutual funds, grain, and livestock to the SGO and receive a 50% tax credit! Please consult your tax advisor for specific tax advice. You can visit www.lutheransgo.org for more information or speak with Rachel Fohne!

2026-2027 St. Paul SGO Fundraising Goal: $110,000

Amount Raised as of August 31, 2026 $1,300
