Feast of St. Michael and All Angels
September 29, 2024

St. Paul Lutheran Church
Lutheran Church- Missouri Synod
Columbus, Indiana

Welcome to St. Paul!

We are glad that you have come to God's house to be fed and strengthened by His holy Word. The order of service for today is printed on the insert in this bulletin. Guests, we extend a special welcome to you this morning. We are privileged to have you as our guest today and encourage you to worship with us again soon.

The Family Quiet Room and Restroom are located outside the doors of the sanctuary and to the left. In the Family Quiet Room, you can hear and see the service. Assisted hearing devices are available for the service. Please contact an usher.

Do you need prayer support? Please call Bonnie England at 812-447-7895 to activate our Prayer Chain. Your fellow church members will pray for you.

Our Communion Practice: We invite and encourage those who have been instructed, confirmed, and confess the faith of this congregation and other congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to receive the Sacrament. Communicants at this altar acknowledge their sins, believe that the body and blood of Christ are truly present in the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins, and desire the Spirit's help to turn from their sins.

Those who are not communing are invited to come forward and receive a blessing by placing their arms across their chest.

If you have questions regarding our Communion teaching and practice, please speak to a pastor.

Communion Preparation: To prepare for the Lord's Supper, you may wish to pray the prayer on the inside cover of the hymnal or review the Christian Questions and Answers on pages 329-330.

All Angels Hymn Festival

AS WE GATHER... For over 1,500 years, September 29th has been celebrated as St. Michael and All Angels Day. Angels serve in many ways: they deliver messages, protect, and serve God's people. Angels also worship and praise. This morning we join in the song of angels as we learn of them and their work and praise our God for the gift of His angels and their service to us and all believers.

Choral Call to Worship

Luther's Morning Prayer—J. Behnke

The morning and evening prayers from the Catechism ask that God would "let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me."

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands, I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Confession of Sins

please stand

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

G Amen.

P Let us confess our sins to God our Father.

G Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

G Amen.

Salutation and Collect for the Day

P The Lord be with you.

G And also with you.

P Let us pray. Everlasting God, You have ordained and constituted the service of angels and men in a wonderful order. Mercifully grant that, as Your holy angels always serve and worship You in heaven, so by Your appointment they may also help and defend us here on earth; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Amen.

Little Sermon

Angels Worship God

Scripture Reading

Revelation 5:11-14

[John writes:] Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, "To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Angels Deliver Messages

Scripture Reading

Luke 2:8-14

And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear. And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom He is pleased!"

Angels Serve God and Believers

Scripture Reading

Hebrews 1:1-14

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days He has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed the heir of all things, through whom also He created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature, and He upholds the universe by the word of His power. After making purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are My Son, today I have begotten You"? Or again, "I will be to Him a father, and He shall be to Me a Son"? And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says, "Let all God's angels worship Him."

Of the angels He says, "He makes His angels winds, and His ministers a flame of fire." But of the Son He says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness beyond Your companions." And, "You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of Your hands; they will perish, but You remain; they will all wear out like a garment, like a robe You will roll them up, like a garment they will be changed. But You are the same, and Your years will have no end." And to which of the angels has He ever said, "Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet"?

Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Angels Guard and Protect

Scripture Reading

Psalm 91:1-12

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with His pinions, and under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place—the Most High, who is my refuge—no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent. For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

Service of the Sacrament

II The Lord be with you.

P And also with you.

II Lift up your hearts.

P We lift them to the Lord.

II Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

P It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

II It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Through Him Your majesty is praised by all the holy angels and celebrated with one accord by the heavens and all the powers therein. The cherubim and seraphim sing Your praise, and with them we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

The Sanctus is written by Martin Luther and is the account of Isaiah's vision in the temple (Isaiah 6:1-8). The congregation will join in singing the song of the angels. When we gather for the Divine Service, we join with angels, archangels, and all the company of heaven in worship and praise to our Triune (thrice-holy) LORD. The word "Sabaoth" is Hebrew for angelic army.

The Choir sings:

I - sa-iah, might-y seer in days of old, The Lord of all in spir-it did be-hold High on a loft-y throne, in splen-dor bright, With robes that filled the tem-ple courts with light. A-bove the throne were flam-ing ser-a-phim; Six wings had they, these mes-sen-gers of Him. With two they veiled their fac-es as was right, With two they hum-bly hid their feet from sight,
And with the oth-er two a-loft they soared; One to the oth-er called and praised the Lord:

The congregation and choir sing the song of the angels:

“Ho - ly is God, the Lord of Sab - a-oth!
Ho - ly is God, the Lord of Sab - a-oth! Ho - ly is God, the Lord of Sab - a-oth! His glo-ry fills the heav-ens and the earth!”

The choir sings:

The beams and lin-tels trem-bled at the cry, And clouds of smoke en-wrapped the throne on high.

II Lord, remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:

P Our Father, who art in heaven...

P Our Lord Jesus Christ...in remembrance of Me.”

II The peace of the Lord be with you always.

P Amen.

C Lamb of God, You take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, You take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, You take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace.

Post-Communion Collect and Benediction

P Let us pray. Gracious God, our heavenly Father, You have given us a foretaste of the feast to come in the Holy Supper of Your Son's body and blood. Keep us firm in the true faith throughout our days of pilgrimage that, on the day of His coming, we may, together with all Your saints, celebrate the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom which has no end; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

P The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

LWML Sunday and Honey Sundays

LWML Sunday is next Sunday, October 6th. We will celebrate and also pray for the outreach endeavors of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. Women are encouraged to wear purple next Sunday.

We will also receive a special mite box offering next Sunday. Included in today's bulletin is an envelope that can be used for your gift. Mite Box Missions are used to fund missions in our Indiana District, our country and through the world. This includes our Latino outreach, Concordia Counseling Center in Seymour, Y4Life of Lutherans for Life, and the Tanzanian Mission led by Pastor Peter Brock.

Please continue to pray for the LWML and for the many missions they support. For more information about the LWML and how to become involved, please contact President Sariina Kalli at run4evr7@hotmail.com.

Our LWML is sponsoring Honey Sundays on Sundays, October 6th and 13th. Bottles of honey are available for a suggested donation of $10 with proceeds benefiting Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch. Honey will be delivered before Thanksgiving.

Loyalty Sunday is October 20th

Every year, we take the time to prayerfully consider God's blessings and then in response, we offer our pledges for the coming year. This serves two purposes: First, this process allows us all to reflect and to respond with joy and thanksgiving to God's countless gifts. By offering our pledges, we can as a congregation faithfully plan and steward these gifts to continue to reach out with Christ's love.

The stewardship packets have been assembled and are available in the gathering space. In order to save postage costs, please pick up your packet and any packet that you can deliver to others. Packets not picked up by October 13th will be mailed on October 14th. The procedures for making your pledges will be explained during the October 13th services.

Loyalty Sunday is October 20th when we will offer our pledges for 2025 as we respond to the Lord's benefits with thankful and grateful hearts. Prayerfully consider God's blessings in your life and how you can use God's gifts to further His kingdom through our congregation, community, and world.
