St. Paul Lutheran Church

Lutheran Church- Missouri Synod

Columbus, Indiana

Welcome to St. Paul!

We are glad that you have come to God's house to be fed and strengthened by His holy Word. The order of service for today is printed on the insert in this bulletin. Guests, we extend a special welcome to you this morning. We are privileged to have you as our guest today and encourage you to worship with us again soon.

The Family Quiet Room and Restroom are located outside the doors of the sanctuary and to the left. In the Family Quiet Room, you can hear and see the service. Assisted hearing devices are available for the service. Please contact an usher.

Do you need prayer support? Please call Bonnie England at 812-447-7895 to activate our Prayer Chain. Your fellow church members will pray for you.

Our Communion Practice: We invite and encourage those who have been instructed, confirmed, and confess the faith of this congregation and other congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to receive the Sacrament. Communicants at this altar acknowledge their sins, believe that the body and blood of Christ are truly present in the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins, and desire the Spirit's help to turn from their sins.

Those who are not communing are invited to come forward and receive a blessing by placing their arms across their chest.

If you have questions regarding our Communion teaching and practice, please speak to a pastor.

Communion Preparation: To prepare for the Lord's Supper, you may wish to pray the prayer on the inside cover of the hymnal or review the Christian Questions and Answers on pages 329-330.

Salutation and Collect of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

G (sung) And also with you.

P Let us pray. Lord Jesus Christ, You reign among us by the preaching of Your cross. Forgive Your people their offenses that we, being governed by Your bountiful goodness, may enter at last into Your eternal paradise; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G (spoken) Amen.

please be seated

Old Testament Reading

Malachi 3:13-18

"Your words have been hard against Me, says the LORD. But you say, 'How have we spoken against You?' You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping His charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts? And now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper but they put God to the test and they escape.'"

Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before Him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed His name. "They shall be Mine, says the LORD of hosts, in the day when I make up My treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares His son who serves Him. Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him."

P This is the Word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading

Colossians 1:13-20

[Paul writes:] He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by Him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. And He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything He might be preeminent. For in Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of His cross.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse

please stand and sing page 156

G Alleluia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Alleluia, alleluia.

Holy Gospel

Luke 23:27-43

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke the 23rd chapter. G (sung) Glory to You, O Lord.

And there followed [Jesus] a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for Him. But turning to them Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with Him. And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on His right and one on His left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide His garments. And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself, if He is the Christ of God, His Chosen One!" The soldiers also mocked Him, coming up and offering Him sour wine and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself!" There was also an inscription over Him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged railed at Him, saying, "Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong." And he said, "Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." And He said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in paradise."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord. G (sung) Praise to You, O Christ.

Next Sunday's Readings—First Sunday in Advent

Isaiah 2:1–5; Romans 13:11-14; Matthew 21:1-11

LIVING THE SERMON... Having been baptized into the death and resurrection of Jesus our Savior and God, we eagerly await His second coming as King of kings and Lord of lords when the full goodness and wonder of His kingdom will be experienced by all Christians. Meditate on that during this week as we end the Church year and begin a new one next Sunday, the First Sunday in Advent.

PRAYERS FOR THE CHURCH... Lord Jesus, You ARE “preeminent” in all things! Help us to remember this when disappointment, defeat, and discouragement cloud our joy this side of heaven. Bless Christians this day everywhere with a deep and abiding faith in You who are God of gods, Lord of lords, and King of kings. Amen.

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK... But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. Romans 13:1

End of Year Giving

Donate to our Lutheran Scholarship Granting Organization at St. Paul!

A donation to our St. Paul SGO directly benefits our Early Childhood Ministry by helping us fund our mission and ministry! And, even better, you as a donor are eligible to receive a 50% tax credit on your Indiana taxes. You can eliminate a portion or all of your Indiana tax liability!

Farmers-Did you know that you can give a gift of grain?

The grain elevator you work with can send your grain check to the Indiana Lutheran SGO, designating our school as the recipient. You do not claim the value of this grain as income AND you would receive 50% back in your pocket as an Indiana tax credit! An example is that $4,000 worth of grain would not be considered income for the donor, and you would receive $2,000 back when you file your taxes! St. Paul Early Childhood Ministry would receive the full $4,000 donation to fund our mission and ministry.

Consider donating by December 31, 2025, so that you can receive your tax credit when you file your 2025 taxes!

Please contact Rachel Fohne for more information at financialsecretary@stpaulcolumbus.org or 812-343-3786. You can also visit www.lutheransgo.org to donate directly online or to receive more SGO information!

The course equips participants with the essential principles and practical tools to grow as effective leaders, emphasizing that leadership is developed—not innate. Through ten foundational lessons—including influence, priorities, character, positive change, problem solving, attitude, service, vision, self-discipline, and personal growth—the course provides actionable strategies for inspiring and motivating others in any leadership role. Participants will learn how to leverage the Five Levels of Leadership, cultivate ethical character, serve others, and cast compelling vision, all while engaging in self-assessment and interactive discussions designed to foster integrity, self-discipline, and positive organizational impact. This course is ideal for both new and experienced leaders seeking to enhance their leadership capacity and drive meaningful change within their teams and organizations.

All are invited to participate. Please sign-up by Sunday, December 7th so that materials can be ordered. Register for the class by contacting Zach in person, by phone or email (812-603-9981; zachmathews1@gmail.com).
